Featured in the Success Women's Conference, "Speakers" Magazine, and published in the Atlanta Business Journal featuring the "Impact of a Bystander" workshop and raising awareness about bullying.

Vernita Stevens, MHR

Vernita Stevens is a Retired United States Marine Master Sergeant and an inspirational speaker who blends depth and gravitas with tact and poise. She offers 20 plus years of leadership expertise and uses an inspirational approach to convey positive results in Bystander Intervention, and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, and Conflict Management.

Her commitment to excellence, solid leadership skills, congressional and command experience has given her a distinctive ability to take extremely complicated procedures, initiatives and situations and turn them into best practices and teachable moments.

Vernita is passionate about helping organizations and the people within them to succeed beyond their potential, providing organizations with the foundation to understand DE&I, bystander intervention, and conflict resolution through focused conversations addressing values, culture, strategies, policies, and procedures.

"Cleaning your Lens Changes your View"

Vernita's leadership and communication skills are unmatched. Goal driven and proven results in any setting. Whatever Vernita sets her mind to do I know for sure it will be 100% professionally done. Great leader and even greater person.

Vernita has delivered multiple training sessions for our company this year. She is an amazing speaker; she is full of energy and passion and adds lots of value to the table. Her style of facilitation is unique and very practical. Our participants love her communication style and her knowledge in leadership and communication. She always finds genuine ways to connect the information with real life examples that are current and meaningful. She has been a great contribution in delivering training to our supervisors and managers.

The feedback I've heard from both our team and other staff has been incredibly positive, thanking us for helping them better understand all that's going on right now, and why it needs to matter to US. Your presentation of all that we discussed, the emphasis and intensity of the emotions our team members have been feeling, your story-telling to help bring all that home better, made this training to much more personal and relatable to many of our staff. Thank you for the time and effort you put in, working with our team personally, and tailoring this to be all we hoped it would be. You are an incredible trainer, speaker, and person. I'm so pleased we chose you for this important training.
